

The school of Dental Sciences is hosting a meeting of the partnering for Health professionals Training in Africa universities (P4HPT). This project is funded by the European Union and supports academic partnership and mobility within participating universities. Participating universities included The University of Nairobi, University of Ghana, Moi University, Makerere University, Uganda Martyr's University, Université De Burundi, University of Juba, National University of Lesotho, Stellenbosch University, Université Catholique De Bukavu and Eduardo Modlano University, Mozambique. The project Coordinator is Prof. Richard Adann of the University of Ghana. So far a total of 34 scholarships have been awarded (27 Masters and 7 PHD'S) And more will be approved during this review meeting in Nairobi. The school of Dental sciences is the current host, Led by the local organizing committee of Dr. Regina Mutave-Dean, Prof. Loice Gathece - INTRA - ACP coordinator and committee members ( Dr. Tom Ochola, Dr. Edith Ngatia and Dr. Bernard Mwa. )